

Public Policy Platform

2007-2008

vaACCSES supports:

- Increased provider reimbursement rates to ensure adequate community capacity to serve people with disabilities.
- Statewide access to quality employment, residential and other support services for people with disabilities.
- Regulatory reform, administrative reform and enabling legislation to improve the efficiencies and coordinate the effective use of resources.
- Equity in state agency allocation processes to support and adequately fund direct community-based services for people with disabilities.
- Services that enable people with disabilities to live and work in their home communities and to exercise choice in their service delivery provisions.
